The Teacher

I managed to land a job Teaching Maths at Anne Marie School, a private owned school for upper class girls aged from eight to sixteen, the girls would always have the best school resources and go to trips very often, their parents were more than able to afford it.

That week we went to the Lake District in England, a beauty spot where the girls were meant to relax and enjoy the day out, they would assign a group of girls to each teacher to be looked after and make sure that all the group kept together, which was not an easy task.

We got to the peak of the mountain by coach and were meant to walk down following the path on foot, half way two bratty ten year old girls got inside the forest which forced me to go after them with my group of girls following.

I caught up with the two little girls after fifteen minutes and told them off for splitting from us, we headed back to the main path and after half an hour walking I realised that the worst nightmare scenario had happened, we were lost.

I attempted not to make it evident that our situation was bad, after a couple of miles walking through the forest some of the girls complained of tiredness and as soon as we found a little river I decided we would stop there as it was better not to move around and to wait for someone to come to look for us next to a place with water, specially under that hot Sun.

We sat down on the grass near the riverside, after a few minutes one eight year old girl asked me permission to bath in the river, which was quite shallow.

-"But you don't have swimming custom sweetie"

-"It does the matter! It's hot and I don't need one" – she replied

-"Well you can bath in the river but be careful with the stones ok honey?"

-"Yuppiee!" – expressing her happiness at being able to swim the brave eight year old girl, a gorgeous brunette prepubescent child with short hair and dark eyes, started to take off her trekking shoes, yellow t-shirt and blue shorts to be followed by her white knickers which had some kids drawings on it, fully naked and smiling the girl dipped into the water, she splashed water on her flat chest using her hands so that it would drip down until it reached her bald pussy and followed down her little legs, I had to make an effort so that the other girls would not catch me staring at the little girl's bald pussy mound.

Watching this eight year old girl bathing in the nude one of the older girls in the group who was thirteen called her "little slut", apparently shocked by her lack of shame, but to my surprise seven more girls aged from nine to eleven years of age asked for my permission to join the nude little girl in the river, to which I happily agreed.

Even though I was a grown up man and I was looking at them the seven shameless preteen girls started to undress next to me without blinking an eye, in less than a minute a pile of little girl clothes had been made on the grass and the seven nude prepubescent angels were in the river throwing water to each other while giving me an eyeful of their pussies and titties, which mostly were bald for the pussies and small stiff nipples for the tits, apart from an eleven year old girl, Maria, whom seemed to have grow up a little fuzzy brown hair on her cunt and more prominent boobs.

Only the oldest of the girls, two thirteen year old, were left with me on the shore, they were too embarrassed to get nude with me being there, this provoked some teasing from her nude bathing schoolgirl friends, with giggles and comments like: "they have no tits", or "they are embarrassed of their cunnies"

- "Why don't you swim with your friends?" - I asked them

- "We don't think it is proper"

- "Well, stay here dying from the hot Sun then" - I said standing up and taking off my clothes to the astonished sight of the two girls and the cheering up of the eight nude girls in the river

- "Yuppie!!! Join us teacher!"

I left my clothes on top of the girl's pile and I saw their amusement on seeing my dick which was as hard as a rock, they started to comment about it whilst I joined the little girls in the water splashing water to them, I grabbed the eleven year old girl by her waist and hurled her on the air, that made all the other girls wanting the same treatment.

It was tiresome, but I did not mind, as before lifting up the wet nude little girls up on the air, under the water I would get a feel of their silky hairless preteen pussy, the girls did not seem to mind this.

I was not happy that the two thirteen year old girls in the shore remained clothed, I gathered the other nude girls in the water and whispering I told them to dare and bring her two prude friends to the water.

The eight girls ran to her two friends and pinning them down to the floor stripped them naked and dragged them to the water, once in the water one of the thirteen year old girl covered up her pussy hair with one of her hands which I grabbed separating it and pointing with my other hand I said:

-“Look girls! That is why she is shy, her pussy has bush!”

The other girls followed my teasing with things like: “she has no titties what is she afraid of” or “her cunt is small that's why” initially this made the thirteen year old girl anger, although in the end she joined our games, imploring me to hurl her on the air and carrying one of the girls on my shoulders which probably made her pussy feel horny at the pressing of it against my neck.

After a couple of hours we got out of the water and lied down nude in the grass with my cock still hard and trying to keep my eyes out of those wonderful bald pussies and small tits and flat chests around me.

I convinced one of the nine year old girls next to me to rub my hard cock up and down with the towel to dry it, which she did willingly under the careful watch of her friends.

I cummed right there on the grass and on the little 9yo girl hand, the other nine girls stood up to get a better look of my orgasm and to see the deflation of my cock.

Half an hour later we got dressed, after a forty minutes walk we found the main footpath again leading us down the mountain.

Since that day those little girls and me do not have the same relationship of teacher-student and sometimes I sneak in their changing rooms after they have their gym class and I shower with all my ten preteen girls, rubbing their backs, looking at their pussies growing up and getting their first pubic hair, teaching them how to finger themselves, kissing them on the lips.

The two thirteen year old girls have now lost their shyness and have learnt to give the best ever blowjobs, I tell them to consider me their best friend and they all keep our little secret , the girls simply love it to see me cum and rub my cock against their pussies in the showers.

* END ****
